

Society

Miss Ellie Wyatt, society editor, of Columbia and the University, the Miss Wells of St. Louis who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Miller at 204 Edgewood avenue, will leave for Columbia tomorrow before going to St. Louis City to reside.

Miss Pearl Mitchell entertained a party of three this afternoon for Miss Wells of St. Louis who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. L. Merian. The dinner was at Mrs. C. R. Moulton and Mrs. Will E. Smith.

Doris and Mrs. Walter Miller, 1516 Main avenue, entertained Miss Louise Miller and Miss Pearl Mitchell at dinner last evening.

Doris and Mrs. Walter Miller and Miss Edith Miller entertained this evening with a party for ten out-of-town guests.

Mrs Frances Denny returned yesterday from Kansas City where she attended the State Teacher's Association convention there. Mrs. J. K. Fife, Mrs. Ruth Miller, Miss Laura Cox and Miss Edith Miller, who attended the convention, will arrive home tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. James of Kansas City arrived today to be the vocal guests of President and Mrs. A. Ross Hill.

Mrs. W. K. Stone, 1010 Conley street, held a party Wednesday evening in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Sue Stone Smith of Columbia, and Fred and Mary Baxter, who are in the University. Twenty-one persons were present.

Miss W. H. Sapp, 504½ South Fifth street, will entertain with a dinner this evening for Miss Nellie H. Lyon of William Woods College, who is weekend guest of Mrs. Sapp.

The living room and dining room will be decorated with Opelia roses. Course menus of sweet peas and roses will be in place cards. The guests will be Helen Jordan, Edith Frank, Julia Hale, Harriet Palmer, Katherine Pon and Miss Sapp.

E. H. Newcomer held open house for female students at his home, 206 South Ninth street, last night after the meeting. The entertainment included music and games.

The Missouri Alumni Association of Louis will give a fall luncheon at the University Club in that city at 12:30 o'clock Saturday, November 29. John Johnston, adviser of women at the University, who will be the guest of honor, will be the principal speaker at the luncheon.

The Tuesday Club will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the A. W. S. Club Auditorium. Mrs. L. W. St. Clair will lead the program which will be "Echoes From the Election."

Miss Marian and Lawrence Ballo, 812 Main avenue, will entertain at 8:30 o'clock tonight with an informal dance in their home. The guests will be Miss Helen Green, Barbara Warren, Ruth Ballard, Betty McCord, Jane Stevens, Jean Steele, Esther Jones, Margaret Miles, Gwendolyn and Allan Belden, Jonas Miles, Diane Turner, Frank Eddleman, Paul True, Clarence Moes, John Calvert and Helen Green.

Miss J. P. Powell of Shanghai, China, who has been visiting Mrs. Frank L. Marion, Stewart Road, will leave tomorrow for Hamlin to visit her father, William Marion.

Miss Louise Buffum of Louisiana, who came to attend the Phi Delta Theta dance tonight is a guest of Miss Alice Weidner at the Pi Beta Phi house. She will return home tomorrow.

Dean and Mrs. Isidor Loeb will have as their guests this week-end Dr. Virgil Leib and M. Steinberg of St. Louis. Dr. Max Myer motored from St. Louis

Call Us

Efficient Plumbing

Expert plumbing is a real art. We're experts in our line of endeavor, but low.

our prices are exceptional.

We solicit your business for new as well as repair work. We will give prompt and efficient service. Call, write, or phone us for estimates.

Columbia Plbg. & Htg. Co.

CLOTH AND SILK BUTTONS
Make the Best Trimmings for Dresses. We make them for you on the premises in all Styles and Sizes the same day you order.

J. WOLFSON, Ladies' Tailor

Miller Building Phone 834

THE COLUMBIA EVENING MISSOURIAN, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1920

LOST IN COLUMBIA INVESTIGATOR FINDS

News sub, I'm Mrs. Black. No, I don't tell fortunes no more. No, sir, I'm sorry, but I'm quite old now. Dr. Leib and Mr. Steinberg and all the guests of Dr. and Mrs. George Leib.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. H. George Leib, street, will be at home at 5 o'clock tomorrow after noon to the Episcopal service.

Miss Ruth Maier of St. Louis is spending the weekend as the guest of Dean and Mrs. Isidor Loeb, Providence road.

The Sunday school classes for high school students at the Christian church have a joint party last night at the church.

THE CALENDAR

November 14—Concert by the University Band in the University Auditorium; 3 p.m.

November 16—Designated by President Wilson as a Memorial Day for the dead over seas.

November 16-18—Convention of the Iowa Association of Sunday Schools, Cedar Rapids.

November 18—Dr. H. D. Curtis, author, will speak on "The Devil in the Universe" in a series of public lectures at Santa Fe's Whick of Hoy Auditorium.

November 19—Football game meeting University Auditorium.

Nov. 20—Ballroom of Shrine Club is Acosta Lodge, 6th street.

November 22—Sports—Jill—Missouri.

November 22—Dr. A. L. Sheldon, author from West, will speak at the Christian Church.

November 22—Second issue of "Columbus" is published.

November 22—Alfred Wenzel, author, and his wife, of Old Missouri, University Auditorium.

November 22—Maurice Murphy, author, speaking at the University Auditorium.

November 22—Helen Johnson, Mrs. John Calvert, Mrs. Max Myer.

November 22—Dinner—Dinner.

November 22—Dinner—Art Club.

November 22—Dinner—Dinner.

November